

New Subdivision Opportunity at Le Life Estate

A new land subdivision at Le Life Estate is now opening doors for those interested in owning property in one of Vanuatu's most unique locations.

Situated where the rainforest meets the sea, the estate offers residents direct boating access via the river, excellent fishing opportunities, and the advantage of being surrounded by nine nearby islands – each with its own charm and adventure to offer.

Potential for growth in the area is "massive," as populations is expected to grow fast, making it attractive not only for lifestyle buyers but also for those looking to invest.

Information brochures and pricing details are now available. Interested parties are encouraged to send a private message for further details.
